

Patricia Hanson is Managing Director and local Co- Owner of IKOR of Western Pennsylvania. IKOR a growing national provider Advocacy & Life Management Services to seniors, disabled and medically fragile adults and children with special needs. Patty works with a team of Registered Nurse Patient Advocates, Personal Needs Coordinators, and Financial Advocates who work collaboratively to support Medical, and routine living concerns of their clients.

Patty's education includes Master of Science in Professional Counseling from Carlow University, a Post Master's Certificate in Gestalt Psychotherapy and Theory from the Gestalt Institute of Pittsburgh, and a Certificate as a Life Care Planner from Capital University School of Law.

Patty serves on the Board of Directors for the Estate Planning Council as Secretary. She is a member Life Options Pittsburgh and serves on the Board of Directors, she is an active member of the Aging Life Care Professional Association, the Association of Daily Money Managers, the American Case Management Association, The Alliance of Professional Health Advocates, and the National Long-Term Care Council.